2. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

2.1. These General Conditions of Sale (the "Conditions"), together with other commercial terms, if any, mutually agreed to by Customer and Seller ("Commercial Terms"), contain the entire and exclusive agreement between the Parties and, are referred to herein as the "Contract". If there is a conflict between the Conditions and the Commercial Terms, the Commercial Terms shall prevail. All terms and conditions contained in any prior or subsequent oral or written communication, including, without limitation, terms and conditions contained in an Order or another document issued by the Customer, which are different from or in addition to the Contract are hereby rejected and shall not be binding on Seller, and Seller hereby objects thereto. No addition to, or amendment or modification of, the Contract shall be valid unless made in a writing signed by an authorized representative of each Party specifically referring to the Contract. Customer shall be deemed to have full knowledge of the Conditions herein. These Conditions shall apply to all Orders, whether or not referred to, in the Order.
2.2. Except as expressly provided otherwise in the written Commercial Terms, any acceptance of the Commercial Terms from Seller by return signature or email confirmation, or any Order placed afterward will imply the tacit acceptance of all terms of the same and the applicable Conditions referenced herein.

3. ORDER AND CONFIRMATION ORDER

3.1. Orders shall be placed in accordance with agreed lead-time (including the production and transportation's lead-times) and if not, Seller's lead-time, communicated to Customer on demand.
3.2. For Orders processed via electronic data interchange (EDI): Orders shall be processed automatically by Seller. In case of incompatibility or rejection of the Order for whatever reason, Seller will inform Customer.
3.3. For Orders placed by any other means of communication than EDI, the Order shall only be considered definitive once a written and signed order confirmation has been sent by Seller.
3.4. The sale exclusively concerns the Product described in the Contract and/or order confirmation. In the absence of mutual agreement, written Commercial Terms to the contrary, any delivery of Products under an individual Order shall constitute a separate Contract between the Parties.

4. MODIFICATION OR CANCELLATION OF ORDERS

4.1. Customer may not cancel, alter, or suspend delivery of this order below lead time, except with Seller's written consent, such modification or cancellation being subject to a surcharge. No cancellation is permitted after the shipment of the Products.

5. QUANTITY, TIMING AND DATE OF DELIVERY

5.1. Except as expressly provided otherwise in the written Commercial Terms, the quantities indicated in the Commercial Terms are non-binding for both Parties. This means for the avoidance of doubt that acceptance of the Commercial Terms does not constitute a supply agreement in itself and does not create any contractual obligations or commitments for performance either for the Seller or for the Customer until Orders are placed accordingly by the Customer and are expressly accepted by Seller.
5.2. Subject to clause 5.1. above, Seller may supply the Product to the Customer, up to the volume expressed in the Commercial Terms and as per the phrasing agreed in the Commercial Terms or, when relevant, as per the forecast to be agreed between the Parties. For sake of clarity, in the absence of such forecast, the Customer's potential needs will be considered as the total volumes expressed in the Commercial Terms every year. Should Customer need more volumes than those expressed in the Commercial Terms, the Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the availability of the Products and to new Commercial Terms to be agreed between the Parties. Seller cannot be held liable anyhow, for any reason whatsoever, in case Seller is not able to supply Customer with those extra volumes.
5.3. The Customer acknowledges and accepts that, on a quarterly basis, any quantity of products is called off by the Customer for the phasing for such quarter and the agreed lead time will not be reserved to the Customer and therefore may not be available to it at any later date. Accordingly, the quantity negotiated in the Commercial Terms will be reduced without any recourse of action against Seller, except as determined and made available by Seller.
5.4. In each case, delivery times and quantities, where possible, but depend on Seller's procurement, production, transportation and storage possibilities and same if delivery times have been confirmed in writing by Seller. Seller cannot be held liable for any delay.

6. DELIVERY, TRANSPORTATION AND INSPECTION

6.1. Except as otherwise provided in the Commercial Terms, Products shall be delivered CIP/CFR port destination (INCOTERM ICC 2020).
6.2. Seller shall keep title over the Products until full payment of the price. Issuing an obligation to pay (like a bill of exchange or promissory note) shall not constitute a delivery of the Products, nor result in the Products' claim. These provisions shall not prevent the transfer of risks to the client upon delivery of the Products, as well as any damage that may occur.
6.3. Risk of loss will pass to Customer in accordance with the applicable INCOTERM, irrespective of whether title to the Products remains vested in Seller.
6.4. The Product shall be packaged in accordance with Seller's packaging data sheet or any other specification signed by Seller in a manner sufficient to ensure the integrity of the Product. Unless otherwise agreed, warranty regarding the packaging of the Product is only given as to compliance with local regulation in the manufacturing and shipping countries.

As an exception, some shipment involved can be exempted from VAT or from any equivalent goods and services tax provisions subject to conditions provided by law. In this case, and upon formal acceptance of the Seller, Customer shall justify by all means, accepted by Seller, the reality of the shipment or transport of Products outside the national territory, in accordance with the applicable law. Consequently, Customer shall provide Seller with, at first request, all necessary and useful information to determine that the Products are intended to leave the national territory, all proofs of deliveries and shall not assign the right to ship the Products to other entities in the national territory; otherwise Seller will submit the delivery to national VAT.
6.5.3. Customer acknowledges the status of Authorized Economic Operator ("Simplifications of customs, security and safety" (AEO/F) of Seller issued by Customs. The AEO/F status recognizes the security of the international supply chain of Seller. Therefore, Customer agrees to ensure such security by complying with the safety requirements described in AEO's guidelines (https://ec.europa.eu/taxation_customs/general-information-customs/customs-security/authorized-economic-operator-aeo/legislation-management-instruments_en#guidelines) and also to ensure that its carriers acting on its behalf are also informed that they must ensure the security of the supply chain in accordance with these guidelines.
6.5.4. In case of no show on the pickup slot agreed in advance between the Parties, a lump sum may be applied by the Seller to the Customer and/or Seller may cancel the Order after several no show.

Except as required by the applicable INCOTERM, in no event shall Seller have any liability in its selection of any commercially reasonable carrier, any damage or loss occurring subsequent to the delivery to a carrier, or any act or omission by the carrier.
6.7. Customer must carefully examine all Products upon delivery and before use. Any visible defects, other than missing Products and/or transportation damages, or any defects discovered as a result of such inspection must be notified within two (2) business days of the discovery and in any case before any use of the Product. The absence of such notification constitutes Customer's irrevocable acceptance of the Products and Seller shall have no liability for visible defects or defects reasonably discoverable upon careful examination. Such notification must include a picture of the visible defect.
6.8. For bulk Products, following the unloading, the weight of the Product transported into the Customer's tanks may vary from plus or minus 0.5% compared to the weight reported on the transport document. For sake of clarity, weight ascertained at time of dispatch will be used for invoicing. Under no circumstances, such fluctuation will allow Customer to claim additional shipment and/or seek compensation in whatever circumstances.
6.9. In the event Customer discovers a latent defect from the use of the Product, to the extent the Product has been used in compliance with section 7. below, Customer shall give written notice to Seller within two (2) business days from the discovery.
6.10. In the event a defect in the Product is discovered for which Seller is responsible as provided in these Conditions, Customer may use or mix the Products following such discovery. If Customer establishes that a defect exists, Customer's sole remedy shall be as set out in Section 7 or by law.

This replacement or refund does not apply to Products misused or damaged because of accident or improper handling, shipping damage, or alterations outside of Seller's facilities.
