Roquette Opens a New Chapter for its Cosmetics Activity

Uniting Expertise for Sustainable Beauty

Lille, France, March 17, 2026 - Roquette, a global leader in plant-based ingredients, announces a new chapter for its cosmetics activity, known as Roquette Beauté, with the introduction of an enriched portfolio thanks to the acquisition of IFF Pharma Solutions in 2025.

Uniting for Sustainable Skin Health and Nutrition

Building on its heritage of plant-based expertise and a strong legacy in health and nutrition, Roquette Beauté now integrates the renowned ingredients Methocel™, Avicel®, Aquacoat®, Ethocel™, and Polyox™ from the acquired IFF Pharma Solutions portfolio, alongside its legacy range of Beauté by Roquette® solutions, which will also integrate the acquired alginate technology.

Shaping the Future of Responsible Beauty

“This moment marks a new chapter for Roquette Beauté, one in which our expanded portfolio and enriched expertise stand ready to shape, together with our customers, the future of innovative and performing cosmetics products,” says Bénédicte Courel, Head of Cosmetics at Roquette. “This reaffirms Roquette’s mission to deliver high-performance, sustainable ingredients that create sensory-rich solutions for all cosmetic products”, she adds.

Roquette Beauté will unveil its newly enriched portfolio and present several innovations to customers and partners worldwide at in-cosmetics Global 2026 in Paris, at booth 3G110, in the innovation zone and the sensory bar, and during a dedicated technical session.
